

Andrew Lawlor

Board Chair

Bakewell Primary Independent Public School Board

Andrew and his family immigrated to Australia from New Zealand, via South Africa, in 2007. After extensive work internationally, with the United Nations, Andrew has specialised in training and management roles for the last nine years with local airline companies.

With a passion for education, Andrew has a strong interest in the delivery of high quality teaching and learning to all students. As both of Andrew's children are on track to complete all their primary schooling at Bakewell Primary School, he has a keen interest in Bakewell Primary School and the wider Bakewell community.

Andrew joined the Bakewell Primary School Council in 2013, and with Bakewell's transition to becoming an Independent Public School he was elected Chair in 2016. This transition period also resulted in the School Council restructuring to become the Bakewell Primary Independent Public School Board.

With the exciting move to becoming an Independent Public School, Bakewell is well placed to expand on the current classroom programs and extra-curricular activities. Andrew looks forward to supporting Bakewell Primary Independent Public School in continuing to provide growth and support for the exemplary teaching staff, and an excellent education with further opportunities for the students to reach their highest potential.
